ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE APPOINTED FOR 2 YEARS

THIS NEW COMMITTEE WILL CONCERN ITSELF WITH THE REGULAR, AS WELL AS THANKSGIVING, OFFERING

J. Archie Cannon, Concord, Is Chairman.—Has Had Much Experience Past Years

WILL MEET OCT. 4th

Synod's Committee Will Assemble Here to Make Plans for Its Work

At the annual meeting of the Synod of North Carolina in Greensboro early in September, that body accepted the recomendation of the Board of Regents that an Orphanage committee be appointed for a two-year term and that it "concern itself toward building up a larger month-to-month income, as well as placing due and proper emphasis upon the Thanksgiving Offerings of 1938 and 1939."

For the past several years, the Synod has appointed a special Thanksgiving Offering committee, which functioned during the immediate months prior to the annual Thanksgiving response. These special committees have done a wonderful piece of work in substantially increasing the annual Thanksgiving donations, but the two-year committee that has been appointed is not only responsible for working toward a good Thanksgiving remembrance, but after that time it will do what it can toward increasing the regular donations.

The general chairman of this Orphanage committee is J. Archie Cannon, of Concord, who has headed the Thanksgiving special committee for four years. Mr. Cannon appeared before Synod in Greensboro this month and in his remarks to that body urged the adoption of the Offering-per-month plan in all Sunday Schools, which would seem to indicate one field in which this committee expects to function in increasing the month-to-month support.

Wording of the recommendation adopted by Synod, upon the Regents' recommendation, and the the personnel of this Orphanage committee is as follows:

"The Board of Regents recommends to the Synod of North Carolina that it appoint, at its 1938 stated meeting, an Orphanage Committee of ten men to serve until the 1940 meeting of Synod. The personnel of this committee will include a general chairman and one person for each of the nine Presbyteries.

"It is further recommended that this committee concern itself to-

Second Thanksgiving Sum Has Been Given

One June 20th, the first 1938 Thanksgiving Offering was received from "X. Y. Z.", a friend who asked that it be credited to the Nahalah Sunday School in Albemarle Presbytery. The second 1938 Thanksgiving response was handed to an official of the Orphanage on Sunday, September 11th, after he had spoken in the Little River Church in Orange Presbytery.

The donor of this sum was Mr. Philo Wilson, of Roughmont, a member of the Little River congregation. He said that he had the money now, always gave that much at Thanksgiving and felt that it could be used more effectively now than at Thanksgiving-time. He was absolutely right in his contention that it could be effectively used, and he is to be commended for making his Thanksgiving contribution more than two months in advance. The wish was expressed that more people would do this. This will be a part of the Offering from Little River Church.

GOOD NEWS

It's good news of an extraordinary nature this month, and concisely enumerated are the following wonderful facts:

Concord Presbyterial is endeavoring to get new beds, springs and mattresses for Alexander Cottage.

Fayetteville Presbyterial is endeavoring to raise $300.00 among its Auxiliaries to pay for some very necessary repair work done on Synod's Cottage the past summer.

Granville Presbyterial is endeavoring to furnish 200 sheets to the Orphanage.

Wilmington Presbyterial is endeavoring to raise a special sum of $232.00 this year, which will complete paying for all equipment in the re-instated Domestic Science Department. This Presbyterial gave the cook stove and utensils last year—a total of slightly more than $158.00.

Haywood Sunday School in Orange Presbytery has adopted the Offering-per-month plan and is giving the second Sunday's Offerings.

Camp Green Sunday School in Mecklenburg Presbytery has adopted the fifth Sunday plan.

Six Forks Sunday School in Wilmington Presbytery has adopted the fifth Sunday plan.

WHAT WILL BE THE GOOD NEWS NEXT MONTH?

L. L. McGOOGAN AND DR. J. R. HAY BECOME POETS

From The St. Pauls (N. C.) Review.

Last year when Mr. L. L. McGoogan directed the work to boost the Barium Springs Orphanage fund in the Fayetteville Presbytery he did a pretty good job of it, so well, in fact, that he was invited by Dr. John R. Hay, of Hickory, publicity chairman of the Board of Regents, to serve again this year.

Mr. McGoogan did not accept the work right away, planning to write Dr. Hay and decline to serve for another year. Time passed and the letter was never written. Then another letter was received from Dr. Hay and this time Mr. McGoogan wrote a letter of acceptance in verse form. Dr. Hay replied in the same vein.

Both letters, which are very unique, follow:

VISITORS FLOCKING TO BARIUM THICK AND FAST

A great many people have visited the Orphanage within the past two months, and hundreds of others are expected to come to Barium Springs this fall. All told, approximately 600 people have visited Barium Springs since the middle of the summer, with the greatest number of those having come to the Home during the early part of September.

Two Sunday Schools had their annual picnics at the springs located on the Orphanage property. Back Creek Sunday School brought in the neighborhood of 200 of its members to Barium on a picnic, and Concord Iredell Sunday School had at least 75 here for its picnic supper.

Delegations have recently visited Barium from the Montpelier Auxiliary in Fayetteville Presbytery; Providence Auxiliary in Mecklenlenburg Presbytery; Buffalo Auxiliary in Orange Presbytery; Reynolda Auxiliary in Winston-Salem Presbytery, and in early summer there was a delegation at Barium from the Rockingham Auxiliary in Mecklenburg Presbytery.

On September 9th, the Officers Training School for Concord Presbyterial was held at Barium, and exactly 155 ladies from Concord Presbyterial registered.

In addition to the larger number coming in one body, a great many cars with a few people in them have stopped by the Orphanage for a little while, as the people were either headed for the mountains or were returning to their native habitats.

Just before going to press with the September issue of the paper, several other groups are planning trips to Barium. One of the group conferences for Concord Presbyterial is to be held at Barium on Wednesday, September 28th; the Orphanage Secretaries of Orange Presbyterial are to meet at Barium on either September 29th or 30th, and a delegation from the Reidsville Church in Orange Presbyterial is making plans for a visit. Bethel Auxiliary in Mecklenburg Presbyterial writes that they will visit the Orphanage this

BARIUM SCHOOL OPENED ON SEPTEMBER 1ST WITH TALK BY REV. T. C. COOK

Warned Students of the Race to Be Run.—Urged to Acquire Mind of Christ

OTHER EVENTS

Interesting Opening Exercises Presided over by Mr. Calhoun

Warning the students of the Barium high school that there's another race to be run besides the athletic race, and also warning them that unless they acquired the mind of Christ their education would be absolutely worthless, Rev. T. C. Cook, pastor of Little Joe's Presbyterian Church here, on September 1st, delivered the main address at the formal opening of the local schools for the 1938-1939 scholastic session.

These exercises were held in the auditorium of the grammar school building and were presided over by R. G. Calhoun, principal. The program consisted of singing the Doxology, reading of Scripture by Mr. Calhoun, prayer by Mr. S. A Grier, solo by Miss Elizabeth McKeithan, the address, singing of America, and the benediction pronounced by Mr. Cook. The enrollment in the schools approximates 320.

Rev. Mr. Cook began his address by citing the mobolized armies of the world, particularly in more recent weeks. He held that these armies, while designed to protect, actually destroy. This led up to his reference to the great army of boys and girls going to schools, colleges and universities - a peace-time army of far greater value than all the armies and navies of all nations of the world, and an army that is so trained and inspired as to make some valuable contribution by taking advantage of the opportunities that a school has to offer.

The speaker said it would be trite to advise his hearers to study hard, to obey the teachers and do those things that are naturally expected and which a person knows ought to be done. Rather,

TWO OR MORE?

Do you get more than one copy of The Barium Messenger in your home? If so, won't you please use one of Uncle Sam's postal cards and notify the Orphanage tto that effect? The extra name will be promptly deleted from the mailing roster of The Messenger. Please designate which name to eliminate in case the paper reaches your home under two separate names.

The above appeared in the August issue of The Messenger, and around 20 people responded by sending postal cards to Barium that more than one copy of The Messenger was reaching them. No doubt there are a good many other duplications. Help the Orphanage by notifying The Messenger if this be true.

33 CHILDREN DO NOT HAVE CLOTHING PEOPLE

All but 33 of the boys and girls at Barium Springs have clothing people, but in all likelihood most of these will be provided for when this fact becomes known throughout the Synod of North Carolina. Officials believe that there are a good many individuals or organizations in the Synod who would like to assume the responsibility for clothing a child at the Orphanage, and any so inclined can direct a letter to Miss Lulie E. Andrews, clothing secretary, and she will be glad to make an assignment to meet your request, insofar as pos-

FULL REPORT IS GIVEN OF DELIBERATIONS BY NORTH CAROLINA SYNOD

Report of Meeting Has Been Prepared by Synod's Publicity Clerk

MET IN GREENSBORO

Church of Covenant Was Host.—Will Meet in Greenville Next Year

BY REV. J. G. GARTH, D. D.
Publicity Clerk of Synod

The Synod of North Carolina met in Greensboro on Sept. 6, 7, and 8th at the Church of the Covenant, of which Rev. R. Murphy Williams has been pastor since its organization in 1906. The church has a splendid auditorium and has recently built adjoining Educational Building at a cost of $80,000, making the plant modern in every respect. The pastor has a full corps of helpers on his staff. Mrs. H. J. Williams is church secretary, and Mrs. Edgar Allred is Director of Religious Education and has charge of student work in the Women's College of the University of North Carolina located near by with about 2,000 students.

The Synod is self-entertaining and the members were quartered in the dormitories of the college as the institution had not opened. The meals were also served there. Next year the Synod will meet under similar circumstances at Greenville in East Carolina Teachers' College, another state institution. Davidson College invited the Synod but the body chose Greenville this time.

An interesting decision made was with reference to student work supported by the Synod, which was to place the responsibility of Presbyterian students in state colleges on the Religious Education Committee which is concerned with other youth work.

Rev. J. R. McGregor, Th. D., of Burlington retiring moderator, preached the opening sermon. Rev. W. M. Fairley, D. D., of Raeford, was chosen as moderator. Dr. Fairley was elected last year before the Synod realized he was not present so they voted again for him. Rev. R. E. McClure, of New Bern, was made assistant clerk. Rev. C. M. Gibbs, of Erwin, is stated clerk, Rev. J. W. Stork, D. D., of Mount Gilead, clerk and Rev. J. G. Garth, D. D., of Charlotte, Publicity clerk.

Synod observed the 50th anniversary of the organization of its home mission work of which Rev. E. E. Gillespie, D. D., is superintendent. Rev. C. E. Hodgin, D. D., of Greensboro, told of the methods of

Alexander Cottage Fund Has Started

The Orphanage today has a nest-egg of $13.65 on a new Alexander Cottage. The contributors of this initial amount, which will be kept separately from the operating account, were the Orphanage Secretaries of Concord Presbyterial who were at Barium on September 9th for a training course. They dared the Treasurer of the Orphanage to use that money in any other way than for a beginning on Alexander Cottage.

Furthermore, that $13.65 was contributed - sight unseen. In other words, the Secretaries took the word of the Presbyterial Orphanage Secretary that Alexander Cottage was in a sad physical state, and they gave $13.65 before they ever saw the building. Maybe it would have been wiser to take the Offering after a tour of inspection. Undoubtedly, the sum given would have been even more.

All contributions to Alexander Cottage will be kept in a separate fund should any others who have seen this building, desire to add their bit to the $13.65 that is now in hand.

The number of organizations assisting the Orphanage increased materially in August, for there were 52 new organizations that joined the 433 that had reported gifts to this Home in the first four months. That brings the total to 485 different organizations now, with 165 Church budgets making apportionments, gifts from 221 Sunday Schools and 99 Auxiliaries. That means that 20 Church budgets sent in their first reports in August, 11 additional Sunday Schools and 21 more Auxiliaries. Watch the number increase greatly during the month of September.

Appreciation Letter; Alumni at College

Letter of Appreciation

One of the former Barium girls was at Barium for a little while this summer, and assisted in directing the work at Camp Fellowship. Part of her letter to Mr. Johnston, which reveals her appreciation of this Home, is being published below, for it is felt that what she has written is typical of the feeling abounding in the hearts of most of the alumni. If expressions of appreciation were printed from all letters that have been written to Mr. Johnston in the past 16 years, it would take a good many columns to record them. However, here is what one of them had to say:

"Mr. J. B. Johnston
Barium Springs, N. C.

Dear Mr. Johnston:

The big purpose of this letter is to thank you for allowing me to again be a part of Barium. I always enjoy being at Barium and especially did I enjoy my work there this summer. Thank you so much. The more that I am away from Barium and the older I become the more grateful am I that my lot was cast among you people for a time. It was a great privilege which I wish never to forget. I am afraid that too often we accept things and forget to say thank you for them. I have always and still do appreciate the influences that were thrown about me and the personalities that became a part of me while I was a student in the institution.

The Camp Fellowship is a fine thing and I am glad that you asked me to help the boys and girls enjoy it for a time. Miss Crane and Miss McNeill have written me such complimentary things about the Camp, Barium, and all my friends there.

Barium will always be home to me. There is just something about it that gets under one's skin and we don't get over it."

Barium Graduates at College

Twenty-six graduates of the Barium Springs high school either returned to 11 colleges and universities this fall, or entered them for the first time. Six of the 26 were children of workers at the Orphanage, but the other 20 were at one time members of the large Orphanage family here.

Friends of these boys and girls will be interested in them and the places where they are obtaining their higher education. The list of 26 and the respective places they are attending are as follows:

Flora-Macdonald: Martha Adams (Freshman); Nellie Johnson (Freshman); Iris Spencer and Miriam Sanders (Senior).

Mitchell: Dorothy Weeks (Freshman); Fred Lowrance (Business and Music).

Appalachian: Marley Sigmon and Joe Savage (Freshman); Ernest White, Joe White, Fred Edwards, Roy Wilson, Milton Gaskill, Dewey Barnhill (Junior); Irene Fort and Carson Wood (Senior).

Sunday School Meals

The Sunday Schools of the Synod of North Carolina gave the Orphanage at Barium Springs $155.01 less in August, 1938, than was sent to this Home in August, 1937. This amount, combined with a decrease of $125.13 noted in the first four months, makes the Sunday Schools $280.14 behind that which had been sent to Barium in the corresponding five months of 1937-1938. It is felt that the money has been contributed, but it just hasn't been forwarded to the Orphanage as yet.

Eleven Sunday Schools have the distinction of being in the $100.00 Club now, which means that five more made the Club during the month of August. Albemarle Sunday School was leading all others with a total of $229.03 contributed. The other ten in the order of the amount that had been sent to Barium, follow: Winston-Salem First, $174.57; Concord First, $168.29; Tenth Avenue, $151.60; Burlington First, $141.39; Salisbury First, $125.00; Shelby, $121.21; Greensboro First, $114.11; North Wilkesboro, $104.55; Kannapolis, $104.10, and Myers Park, $102.71.

The following are the meals that could have been served with the Sunday School Offerings in the past 29 months:

ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE

ward building up a larger month-to-month income for our Presbyterian Orphans' Home, as well as placing due and proper emphasis upon the Thanksgiving Offerings of 1938 and 1939.

"For the committee to be appointed at the meeting of Synod, the Regents recommend the following:

"General chairman—J. Archie Cannon, Concord.

"Albemarle Presbytery—R. Brooks Peters, Jr., Tarboro.

"Concord Presbytery—Gettys Guille, Salisbury.

"Fayetteville Presbytery—L. L. McGeogan, St. Pauls.

"Granville Presbytery—T. C. Worth, Durham.

"Kings Mountain Presbytery—J. L. Kendrick, Gastonia.

"Mecklenburg Presbytery—Rev. Harry K. Holland, Charlotte.

"Orange Presbytery—W. H. Holderness, Greensboro.

"Wilmington Presbytery—Jas. H. Clarke, Elizabethtown.

"Winston-Salem Presbytery—Thos. L. Wood, Winston-Salem."

Mr. Cannon has issued a call for a meeting of this Orphanage committee for Tuesday, October 4th, said meeting to be held at Barinum, beginning with lunch in the dining room at noon. The committee will assemble to make tentative plans for the approaching Thanksgiving Offering and will also consider ways and means of obtaining a larger income for Barium. Under the present operation of the Home, one-half of the Orphanage's annual gifts come at Thanksgiving, with one-third of the income reaching the Home in eight months and two-thirds in the last four months. It is this situation which the committee is hoping to alter.

During the hour permitted at Synod for the presentation of the Orphanage, four people spoke. Rev. Eugene Alexander, Manchester, retiring president of the Board and also a retiring Regent, presided and made the annual report from that controlling body. Ernest Milton, Treasurer, spoke upon the finances of the Home; Mr. Cannon, as previously outlined, spoke about the work of his committee, and Jos. B. Johnston, Superintendent, plead with the ministers for the exercise of patience when applications are made and also told his hearers of the many advantages and the great amount of good already accomplished because of "Camp Fellowship" on the Catawba River, which was made possible by donations from the Men's Fellowship Club of the Charlotte Second Presbyterian Church.

Orphanage Work Secretary Says

Dear Friends of The Woman's Synodical Auxiliary.

September, Loyalty Month, is here. How truly I hope that every one of you have had a happy vacation time during the summer months, and that you are ready in body, mind and soul to meet the challenge that comes to us with the approaching autumn season. The Loyalty Month calls to a new expression of our devotion to Christ, to His Church and to every cause of the church. I am asking that you put your love and loyalty to work for our Orphanage - very definitely.

If you have had the privilege of visiting Barium, I am sure that you are inspired to plan and attempt greater things than ever before. Remember it is not yet too late to go, and I hope many of you will go, look, see, this fall.

I have already told many of you individually that a splendid program for use in the Auxiliaries is being prepared by Mr. Milton and will be sent out from his office at Barium Springs. Every Auxiliary in the Synodical is urged to use this as the basis of an Orphanage program at the October or November Auxiliary meeting. Please cooperate in this and let us have 100% on this part of our year's objective: KNOW YOUR ORPHANAGE. The program is in the form of a playlet or pageant and every Auxiliary can adopt it to its own needs.

All of you understand that no Orphanage program is sent out from the Woman's office in Atlanta, because not every Synodical has the privilege that is ours, here in North Carolina, of having our very own Orphanage. So do plan for a Barium Auxiliary meeting.

There is something that every woman can do to help. Please find what your part is and with a new spirit of loyalty go to work.

I must tell you about a great day that Concord Presbyterial had at Barium Springs on Sept. 9th. The president, Mrs. R. F. Reins, had asked that her Executive Board, all officers of local Auxiliaries, and especially all local Orphanage Secretaries meet for a day of prayer and planning, as we begin the fall work. And, they came—one hundred and fifty-five came—thirty-one local Orphanage Work Secretaries came! Those at the Orphanage received us with open arms, provided for our comfort, fellowshipped with us, counselled with us, and sent us away rejoicing that we have a part in this Kingdom service.

Assembled in Little Joe's Church, the morning was spent in prayer, and a blessed experience it was. Then lunch was served in the dining room with the children and workers. We partook with them of good things raised on the Orphanage farm—all so well prepared and served, and hospitality shared with their visiting friends.

Later, conference periods were held by the different groups of officers, each in one of the cottages. I wish you all could have looked in on the Orphanage Workers' group. Rarely have I seen more inspiring enthusiasm in a like group. Mrs. A. J. Yorke, Presbyterial Secretary, presided and challenged the local Secretaries to the centers of interest for Barium: to secure one Sunday per month offering from all Sunday Schools, 7½% of Benevolent Budget from every Auxiliary, and an every member gift at Thanksgiving. Envelopes for this offering are to be distributed throughout the Auxiliaries.

To increase interest in the Orphanage, every Auxiliary is to put on a program before Thanksgiving. Programs were given out by Mr. Milton, who had prepared them. Perhaps the point of greatest enthusiasm was reached in discussing the needs of Alexander Cottage. So real was the group's desire to help, that a love gift was taken and given into Mr. Milton's keeping as a "nest-egg" for a new Alexander Cottage. We trust that the day may bring large returns in interest and service.

Just one week later, September 15th, I was privileged to meet with the Orphanage Work Secretaries of Mecklenburg in Charlotte at the home of Mrs. W. H. Belk, Presbyterial Secretary. We had a delightful day in conference and fellowship. Mr. Milton was there to bring information and inspiration and he knew all the answers to all questions the group asked, and the same objectives were stressed as at the Concord Secretaries' meeting. There was a fine spirit of loyalty and zeal manifested. Discussion was even continued throughout lunch, when Mrs. Belk was our gracious hostess.

Word comes today that Orange Orphanage Work Secretaries are coming to Barium for a like meeting on the 29th or 30th. That's splendid! How glad we are, as each group thus comes together.

Let every Presbyterial Secretary present Barium at district meetings, and I hope to see you at Synodical in Raleigh, October 18th and 19th.

The ladies who attend the Synodical meeting at Raleigh next month have a great treat in store for them when the Orphange cause is presented. This will be done by Rev. Chester Alexander, pastor of the Howard Memorial Church in Tarboro and a member of the Board of Regents. Rev. Mr. Alexander has accepted an invitation to present the Orphanage, and he will speak at 2:30 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, October 19. Don't miss that address. If you possibly can, hear it!

Faithfully yours,
(Mrs. C. E.) Margaret S. Raynal
Synodical Secretary of O. W.
Statesville, N. C.

Income Distribution

Of the $12,106.05 that was received for the regular support fund from the Synod of North Carolina in the fist five months of 1938-1939, $5,912.37 was received from the Sunday Schools; $4,085.91 came from Church budgets, and $2,106.77 was forwarded to Barium by Auxiliaries. On a percentage basis, this showed 48.8% from Sunday Schools; 33.8% from Church apportionments, and 17.4% from the Auxiliaries.

The net difference in all of the giving for the comparative period of five months in 1937-1938 and 1938-1939 is $31.72 in favor of the former year. According to the organizations, church budgets have sent the Orphanage $359.04 more than last year, while the Sunday Schools have given $280.14 less and the Auxiliaries have sent $110.62 less.

Distribution of the regular income is the following tabulation of the $12,106.05 that had been received at Barium Springs by August 31st:

33 CHILDREN

Among the 33 children without clothing people are boys and girls ranging from four years of age through 18 years of age. Such a situation means that an individual or organization can get a child to clothe for 11 years, or they can be assigned a boy or girl for a single year, for those 18 years of age will graduate next spring. This information is given, for oftentimes a person desires to obligate himself or herself for a limited period of time. Of the 33 children, four have not started to school, six are in high school and 23 are in the grammar grades.

Those who want to make the clothes and send them to Barium can be assigned a small child. Those of larger size can be assigned to those who perfer sending the money to Barium Springs and letting officials here make the necessary purchases. When the clothes are made, the clothing people are asked to send money for the shoes, for it is advisable to fit the children here.

In cases where clothing people want to send money to Barium, they are asked to forward $15.00 in September and $15.00 in March, a total of $30.00 for the year. The actual outlay in 1937 averaged 9.7 cents per child per day, or an annual average of $36.41, which includes the cost of shoes. Even though it is costing the Orphanage more than $30.00 a year for a child's clothes and shoes, friends are still asked to send only $30.00. Some years ago - before the depression - $45.00 a year was sent for the clothing. No advancement has been made in the askings, despite the increased cost of clothing.

"The Village of Youth"

Written by Jos. B. Johnston for The Tar Heel Woman:

There is a place in Iredell County just halfway between the the National Summer Resort of the Asheville district and the equally famous Winter Resort at Pinehurst—a place where the marvelous Sandhill Peach and Melon Belt overlaps the Appalachian Apple Belt; a place encircled by a ridge that divides the watersheds of the Yadkin and the Catawba; where something over three hundred children live and attempt to work out their destiny.

It is an Orphanage maintained by the Presbyterian Church in the Synod of North Carolina, but nature and circumstances have caused it to be much more than an Orphanage. We might say that it is an unique situation. Here young people soon learn that a successful life is based on the proposition that living is a co-operative affair, and on that proposition some amazing results are evident.

A time-honored policy of Orphans has been from time immemorial, to plan to get things, and any visitor coming to an Orphanage is expected to bring gifts. If an individual or group at an Orphanage needs something, the policy has been to hunt somebody that is able to give that thing, and thus procure it. From the children's viewpoint it is almost entirely a proposition of getting.

Many years ago this idea was changed at Barium, and the policy that now prevails is one in which the institution asks for things that can not be provided within itself, and both individually and collectively, the institution strives to produce those other things that may be wanted.

It might simplify it to express it this way: That the institution looks to the supporting Church for its NEEDS; it looks to itself for its WANTS above those needs. The Church furnishes the cornbread, the individual efforts of the children themselves furnish the ice cream.

Without going too much into detail, this policy over a period of years has changed some of those time-honored Orphanage traditions. When the institution wants something, it first tries to supply that want itself. If it is unable to do so, then to ask outside help.

Sometimes the success in producing it is so great that they have something to spare, and this rare situation arises: That visitors can come to the Orphanage and at times be given something rather than be on the giving end altogether, and the thing that does for the personalities of the children living at Barium Springs, certainly proves the truth of the proverb that "It is more blesed to give than to receive".

Through the efforts of the children at Barium, the institution produces its own bread, meat, vegetables, milk, fruit, altogether 85% of the things that are eaten.

The athletic program produces revenue enough to provide for most of the recreational activities, and enables the institution to play host to other schools and organizations in many of its recreational programs.

What is the end result of such a policy? Well, people have said that a young man or woman who had been reared at Barium Springs has a distinctive way of walking, talking and acting. They carry their chin up, their shoulders back, and look you straight in the face. They have helped work out problems that arise in the business of growing up. They have been the dispensers of good things as well as the recipients of good things, and they meet life, as a rule, unafraid.

Barium Springs has a splendid staff of workers, and somehow they seem to improve with the years just as the children do, under the aforementioned combination of nature and circumstances.

Barium Springs is surrounded by neighborly friends. Among these friends are doctors who make the health program of this unique institution something that it might be well to set a national standard by. The treatment of disease is incidental; the discovery of symptoms that might lead to disease is the main part of the health program, and a statement showing the success of this program is so unbelievable that we hesitate to make it to anyone who can not verify the statement by actual investigation. Suffice it to say that visits of doctors to the campus, except for examination purposes, are rare occurrences. Death has visited this group once in twelve years. Epidemics seem to detour, and abounding health seems to make its permanent abode at Barium.

One other thing: Children are gathered into this institution from all over the state of North Carolina, and when children are moved from a home, however humble, homesickness is bound to result.

Barium Springs is ideally situated to make this malady quickly disappear. The little waif from the mountains will find enough hills to remind him of the coves and the peaks of the home community, and they can view old Grandfather topping the other mountains on the Western horizon, any time they feel that they must turn their eyes in that direction. At the same time, those newcomers from the Coastal Plain and the flat sections of our State, can find enough level land to feel safe and to see enough of the things that grow in those lush fields to restore their sense of security.

Barium Springs, the village of perpetual youth, where there is a lot of fun, a lot of laughter, a lot of kindness—a lovely place to be.

AUGUST RECEIPTS FOLLOW SUMMER PATTERN

Granville	144.62	2.3c	8.7c
SYNOD	$2,462.42	2.9c	14.3c

The Synod of North Carolina contributed $2,462.42 to the Orphanage in August which was $88.82 more than in the corresponding month of 1937. That whittled down the difference in the income for two years, and the record now shows that Synod was $31.72 behind its giving on August 31st, as compared with the first five months of 1937-1938.

Little change occurred in the standing of the Presbyteries in August. Orange and Kings Mountain swapped places, and so did Wilmington and Fayetteville. Only half a cent separates Kings Mountain in fifth place and Orange in sixth, and but one-tenth of a cent separates Wilmington in seventh place and Fayetteville in eighth.

COTTAGE NEWS

INFIRMARY

Hello Readers,

We want to tell you some of the Infirmary news. We have started back to school and we are about regulated to winter schedule again.

Joyce Weeks, who broke her ankle, is getting along nicely. She is able to go to school with the aid of her crutches and the nice teachers who take her over to school in their cars. Rowland Hooten, who had a knee injury, is also able to be back home and able to go to school. This is the first time in a good while that we have really needed a rolling chair. Joyce and Rowland both would have enjoyed rolling themselves about if we'd had a chair.

Mrs. Barkley's mother and sister, Mrs. J. T. Gainey and Miss Margie Gainey, from Cheraw, S. C., spent a week with us recently. We enjoyed having them and hope they will come back to see us soon.

We enjoyed and thank Mr. Sams for the free picture show he gave us last month.

Mrs. McNatt's daughter, Miss Rachel, who is a nurse at Pittman's Hospital in Fayetteville, visited us in August. We were glad to have her.

Mrs. Barkley and Mrs. McNatt were joint hostesses to Circle No. 1 of Little Joe's Auxiliary Tuesday night, September 6th, at Mrs. Barkley's Apartment in the Infirmary. At the conclusion of the Bible study and program, a social hour was enjoyed. A salad course with iced fruit punch was served.

The same girls, Nancy Stafford, Sadie Mills, Geraldine Blue and Lilly McDonald are going to live at the Infirmary another year.

We were all glad to have Mr. Cook back in the pulpit last Sunday after a month's vacation and rest at Montreat.

We are enjoying Mrs. Grier's visit while Mr. Grier is at the meeting of Synod.

We'll be writing again, so look for us.

—Infirmary Girls.

ANNIE LOUISE

Hello Folks,

School has started and we are all studying hard. Our pastor, Mr. Cook, made the address at the opening exercises on the first day of September. We surely did enjoy his talk.

We were so glad to have back with us Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Brown for a short visit. We surely were glad to see them.

We want to thank Mr. Johnston for letting us see "The Adventures of Robin Hood." We certainly did enjoy it. We also want to thank Mr. Sams for inviting us to see Joe E. Brown in "The Gladiator."

Betty Lou Davis went to Greenwich, Connecticut for a month's visit but she is back with us now. Last week she received a nice box of books from Mrs. Pritchett. All of us will enjoy reading them very much indeed.

One of our girls, Janie Smith, went to camp the 22nd of August for the week. She had a mighty good time.

Dorothy Maples, Margaret Bullard, Virginia Presnell, Ernestine Baldwin, and Margaret Steed have had visits from their people in the last few days.

Well, we will have to sign off for this time.

—The Annie Squeezers.

"I give and bequeath to the REGENTS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA, Incorporated Under the laws of the state of North Carolina, (HERE NAME THE BEQUEST.)

FINAL 1938 CAMP FELLOWSHIP NOTES

Camp Fellowship on the Catawba River was available for approximately 300 children of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville for two weeks, to 100 children in Children's Home, the Methodist Orphanage at Winston-Salem for one week, and to about 100 children in the Junior Order Orphanage at Lexington, for another week. A nominal charge was made for the use of the camp. In sending the check to Barium, each Superintendent of those three Orphanages made special comment about the camp. Part of each letter is quoted below:

"Dear Brother Johnston:

I am enclosing two checks, one for $25.00 and one for $44.00, covering our expenses while at 'Camp Fellowship'. The reason we are sending two checks is because they are charged to different funds.

I fully realize this does not begin to cover your expenses, and again we are grateful to you for the privilege of the use of the camp. We shall be looking forward to next year.

Sincerely yours,
W. M. SHUFORD, Supt.,
National Orphans' Home."

"Mr. J. B. Johnston
Barium Springs, N. C.

My Dear Friend Johnston:

Enclosed you will find two checks, one for $6.88 for Ice and the other for $50.00, which I am sure will not begin to pay for the expenses of your camp for two weeks. Such privileges as you extended to us cannot be paid for in money. It was a happy thought on your part and I want to thank you most sincerely for the many courtesies extended to our group while attending the camp. It was a new experience and our workers, as well as the children, were greatly pleased and continue to talk about it.

Most sincerely yours,
I. G. GREER,
Superintendent, Mills Home"

"Mr. Joseph B. Johnston
Barium Springs, N. C.

My Dear Brother Joe:

I am enclosing our check for $50, half of it to apply on the fee for the use of Camp Fellowship during last week and the other half coming as a donation from the Children's Home to the camp project. We feel that $25 is too small an amount for the joy you and your camp gave us during the week.

I really believe that our boys and girls who went to camp last week are back here in better shape than those who came trooping in from visits to relatives and friends. To be sure, some of our younger boys and girls did not get enough sleep at camp but that was because we did not insist on it. The camp project is a very fine idea and will be of inestimable worth to boys and girls as the summers come and go. We are mighty glad to be included as one of the guests to share in the project.

Cordially yours,
O. V. WOOSLEY
Superintendent, Children's Home"

Fourth Camp Week

Following the procedure adopted at the first camp on the Catawba River, the boys and girls attending for the fourth week made their choices of the best boy and girl camper, and the runners-up. Helen Price and Lee Spencer were the first choices for girl and boy, respectively, and second honors went to Grace Shroyer among the girls and to Billy McCall among the boys. No list was furnished for those honorably mentioned at that particular week of camp. This camp was from August 15th through the 20th.

A feature of this fourth week was a division of the 72 campers into four tribes, known as the Mohawks, Chocktaws, Navajos and Cherokees. The Mohawks won with 27 points which came through individual competition in games, swimming, obstacle races and a boat race.

Final Camp Week

The week of August 22nd through the 27th was the fifth and final week of camp for the Barium children. This group was made up of those boys and girls who did not have a vacation away from Barium during the past summer, and it was therefore their second week at Camp Fellowship, since every Barium boy and girl spent one week there. The final camp had slightly more than 100 children in it.

Voted as the best girl camper was Gertie Smith and Arthur Roach and Lee Spencer were in a tie for this honor among the boys. Mabel Shoaf won second honors among the girls and William Smith took second place for the boys.

At this final camp, honorable mention was given to families, instead of to individuals, for the children this time attended by families, since the several members of each family did not go on vacations. Families honorably mentioned were Agnes and Grace Coppedge; Gertie, Flora Mae and Lilly Belle Smith; William, Janie and Stanley Smith, Alessandrini, Mckenzie, and Shoaf.

be selected to tell the boys and girls to give a certain amount of attention to their physical development, but pointed out that there's another race that they must be thinking about. This was the race of life - a race in which somebody had to take second place, a race that must be run with patience, and a race that has the prize of the high calling of God in Jesus as the ultimate goal.

"I warn you not to take too great an interest in athletics, but remember that you are going to school to train your mind. You'll think a great many things are unimportant in school and will wonder why the teachers stress certain things and to study all subjects. I ask you to trust your teachers and take their word for it. They are experts and their advice will be valuable. Train your mind and learn facts, and the more will you be able to enjoy life."

His second warning was that it was important to have the mind of Christ. "You may win all the honors, you may have the finest mind, but if somewhere along the line you don't have time to acquire the mind of Christ it will be worth absolutely nothing. Many of the criminals of today," said Mr. Cook "are college men. They didn't run the Christian races or have the mind of Christ. Have your mind in tune with the heart of God. Let this mind be in you that is also in Christ Jesus."

McGOOGAN AND HAY

St. Pauls, N. C.
August 20, 1938

Rev. John R. Hay, D. D.,
Hickory, N. C.

Dear Dr. Hay:

Your letter came and to my shame,
Has gone without reply,
And at this time, in prose or rhyme,
I really can't tell why.

But let me say that punk delay
Is not a fault of mine;
Although a drone, I'm not much prone.
To crimp my face and whine.

But, face to face with this one case,
I make this explanation:
I could not get by pain or sweat
Personal approbation.

I had a fear that I, last year,
Did not at all succeed.
And then I said, says I, I said,
"I'll let another lead."

But now, at last, the time all past,
I simply reconsider;
For no sane jay can get away
From orphans (and the widder)

Therefore, with pride, I now decide
To undertake the battle;
I'll give a whack, both front and back,
And make the welkin' rattle.

And now to you I say "Adieu"
And therewith nod my noggin;
With all thoughts kind in heart and mind,
I sign, L. L. McGOOGAN.

HAY TO McGOOGAN

Hickory, N. C.,
August 24, 1938.

Hay to McGoogan—no answer had he,
Hay to McGoogan—again presently.
McGoogan to Hay—now without delay.
McGoogan to Hay — the good word to say.
Hay to McGoogan—"Thanks, pal for the rhyme,
I'll listen for more—at Thanksgiving time"

Sincerely,
JOHN R. HAY.

"I hear your boy friend had a finger in a big transportation deal, Miss Smithens."

"Yes, he thumbed a ride across the country."

—P. O. H.—

"What must one do to have beautiful hands?"

"Nothing."

—P. O. H.—

An Irishman who was sleeping all night with a negro had his face blackened by a practical joker. Starting off in a hurry in the morning he caught sight of himself in a mirror. Puzzled he stopped and gazed, and finally exclaimed: "Begorra, they've woke the wrong man."

FULL REPORT GIVEN

work through the Assembly before the state work began. Dr. R. A. White, of Mooresville, gave a history of the 50 years since Home missions started in 1888, and Dr. P. D. Miller, of Raleigh, exhorted the Synod to go forward in the light of such a record.

The names of ten ministers who had died during the year were read and suitable memorials adopted at the annual communion services. The deceased ministers are as follows: H. M. Dixon, W. J. Roach, T. M. Stribling, J. E. Berryhill, C. W. Sommerville, J. A. Caligan, W. M. McMorries, J. N. H. Summerell, C. W. Robinson, and W. M. Hunter.

Prof. Archibald Currie, of the Davidson College faculty, was chosen as Synod's representative on the Assembly's committee of cooperation and union and Dr. C. M. Boyd, of Charlotte, was made alternate.

The moderator, Dr. Fairley, and the Clerk, Rev. Mr. Gibbs, were appointed to take part in a program on November 5 at historic Centre church near Mooresville in the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Synod of the Carolinas which organized at Centre in 1788. The Synod of North Carolina was organized in 1813 at Alamance church near Greensboro.

Rev. Harry P. Bryan of Birmingham, Ala., a missionary on furlough from Japan, told of the Christian heroism and faithfulness of both Chinese and Japanese Christians during the war in progress in China.

Dr. J. R. McGregor reported on the progress of Religious Education. The Synodical conference at Davidson and conferences in the nine Presbyteries were well attended, training classes were held in numerous cities, 227 vacation Bible schools were conducted. He said Miss Mamie McElwee, who originated the Synodical conference idea and has been active for 19 years, is withdrawing from her work. Synod rose in recognition of her services.

Dr. W. T. Thompson, of Union Seminary, addressed Synod on adult education.

Rev. Eugene Alexander, president of the Board of Regents of Barium Springs Orphans' Home, reported 322 children there, in good health and receiving excellent training. The budget of the home is $105,000 with the church contributing $88,000, the rest coming from endowment, private gifts and other sources. The Thanksgiving Offering of 1937 was $44,000, which was $7,000.00 less than in 1936.

Plans were made for a committee to make special efforts for the Thanksgiving offering. J. Archie Cannon, of Concord, is chairman. The committee is for two years and after Thanksgiving it will work on a larger month-to month income. Superintedent J. B. Johnston said the camp on the Catawba river had given 900 youngsters a summer vacation. The men's club of the Second church, Charlotte, donated the buildings worth $1800.

Rev. J. H. Grey, pastor of State College church at Raleigh, said there were 1500 youths from Presbyterian homes in state colleges.

All the eight colleges and schools of the Synod were reported in good condition, with large enrollments, and annual expenses met. Synod asked that all boards of trustees confer and arrange a statewide campaign for debts, equipment and endowments in 1939, for all the Synod's schools.

Synod voted to approve the amendment of Union Seminary's charter to provide that no candidate shall be admitted without a college degree, except in extraordinary cases who shall undergo a rigid examination by the Seminary.

The committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, which is raising the accrued liability fund for the Ministers' Annuity Fund, was asked to consider the plan of sending special agents to people of means and secure subscriptions to complete the $3,000,000 fund and at the same time stimulate the whole church to do its utmost to finish the project.

Woman's work was reported as progressing with increases in the spiritual work and gifts of $202,625 to all causes, an increase over last year. The moderator is to give the Synod's salutation to the Synodical Conference in Raleigh in October.

Synod's Home Missions supported 80 missionary workers last year, and Rev. R. K. Davenport evangelist held 26 meetings and had 371 conversions. Synod paid out $26,915 for the work. Presbyterian News, Synod's church paper, went to 7,500 families.

A budget of $500,000 was adopted for 1939. Synod's gifts amounted to $538,234 an increase of $64,795. Schools and colleges received $16,558. The Synod has 534 churches, 364 ministers, 84,582 members, and 72,146 in Sunday School. Added on confession last year were 2,941.

Rev. J. O. Mann was re-elected for one year as Director of Religious Education and Miss Mary Louise Woodson as Young People's Worker. Rev. E. C. Lynch, of Wilson, is to convene Synod's committee of the Minister and his work.
